

Assignment Introducing yourself to an International Audience

Purpose of the Assignment

The purpose of the assignment is expectation management

Learning objective

To know my values with respect to classroom behaviour of my students, my own teaching style and the effectiveness of bringing those values across to the students.

Activity

You will be videotaped “ time/date”

Prepare a 2-5 minute presentation in which you will introduce yourself. The introduction is about yourself; (1) “ your personal values with respect to teaching and life” and (2) the way your class will be organised and (3) in which expectations this results with respect to your student population.
